

Adam & Clint

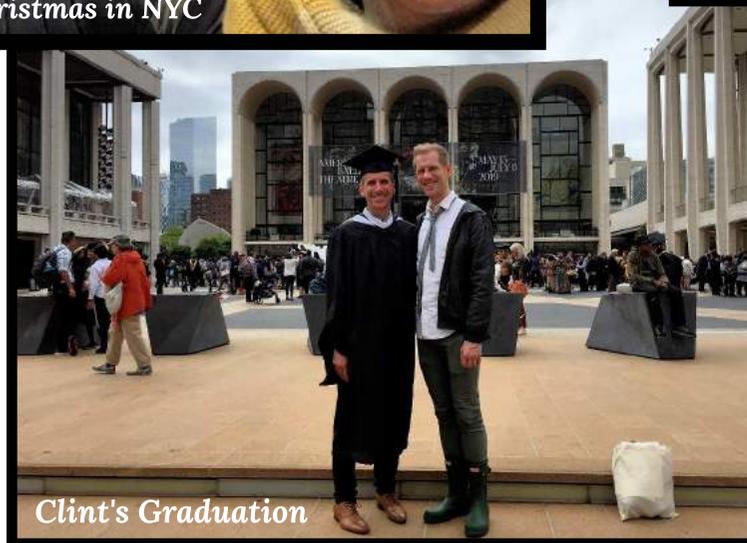

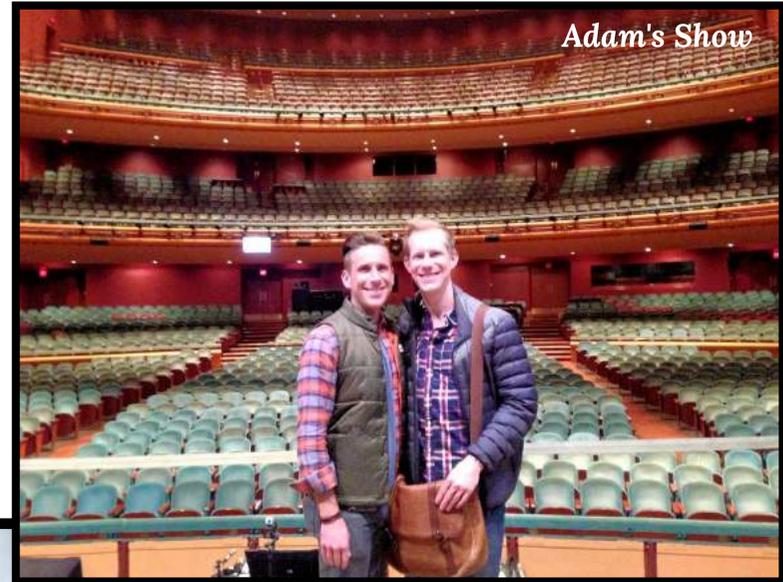

Hello!

We are Adam & Clint, from New York City.

Thank you for taking the time to learn about us. We know that this may be a difficult time in your life, and we are inspired by the strength, courage, and love that you are showing by considering an adoption plan for your child.

We are here to support you, and will be happy to answer any questions you may have for us. We look forward to hearing from you.

We met in 2014, were married in the spring of 2019, and are delighted to embark on our 8th year in the city together.

The past several years of our lives have brought theatre outings, graduation dates, and marathon trainings.

We are hoping the next several will bring park outings, play-dates, and potty trainings.

We have always wanted to be parents, and have shared this wish with one another since the early days of our relationship. We are ready to grow our family, and hope that you will help us make our dream come true.

We live in a beautiful, family-oriented neighborhood in Queens that we have fallen in love with over the years.

The tree lined streets, vibrant playgrounds in every direction, and large community of friends and family make it a perfect place

We renovated our home to honor the gorgeous history of the property, while updating the space to enjoy the modern conveniences of 2022. Our beautiful, bright 2nd bedroom will make the perfect nursery for your little one!

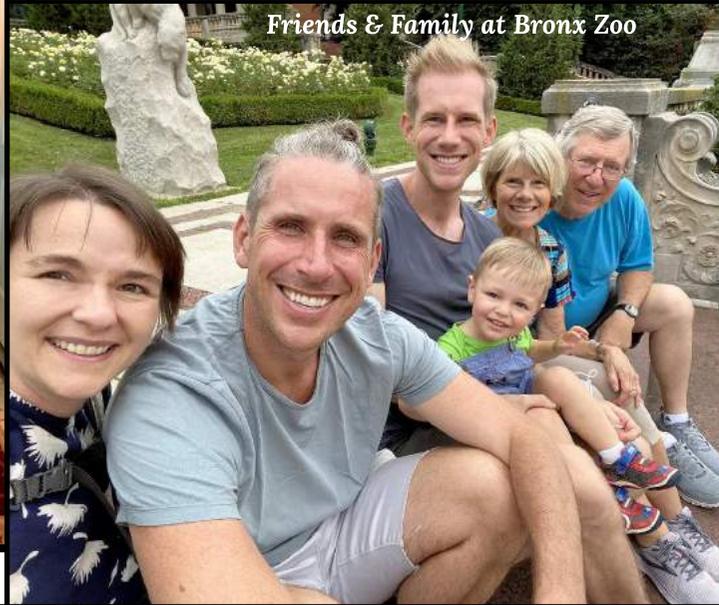

In many ways we complement each other. Clint is a planner, Adam is very spontaneous. Clint enjoys repetition, Adam seeks adventure. Clint has a photographic memory, Adam has a habit of misplacing things :)

We also have many similarities. One of the greatest connections we share is our Adam grew up in Green Bay, Wisconsin as a middle child, sandwiched between two sisters. Childhood was filled with costume parades, imaginary pirate forts, and endless silly made-up games.

As adults, the whole family is still very close. Everyone is very excited about our prospect of adoption! Grandma & Grandpa are counting down the days they get to spoil your little addition to our family.

All of Clint's family could not be happier when we shared our plans to adopt. They are already competing for who will get to hold your little one first!

Clint was raised in Ohio. He is an only child, with an unparalleled bond between him, his mother and his adoring grandparents. His childhood was similarly filled with childhood pranks from Grandma & Grandpa, daily adventures alongside mom, and special quality time with his dad.

Holiday traditions have always been a big part of both of our families.

One tradition we continued from Adam's family is birthday breakfast in bed (served by the rest of the family of course). Orders have included donuts, eggs Benedict, captain crunch, and ALWAYS coffee.

A holiday tradition we have incorporated from Clint's family is that on Christmas morning, everyone must wear festive, red and green Christmas PJ's while opening presents around the tree. We cannot wait to welcome your child into our family and share our traditions.

Adam works as a musician and is currently an associate music director on Broadway. He feels very fortunate to have worked on numerous Broadway shows such as Beetlejuice, Wicked, & The Book of Mormon; as well as has traveled the country with several Broadway National Touring Productions.

Adam prides himself on staying grounded and calm in a work atmosphere that is fast-paced and high pressured. As a father, he believes he will be cool and collected in difficult situations, focused and attentive navigating stress, and optimistic and positive on day-to-day outlook.

Clint works as a high school social worker at a public school in NYC. He also spent the last several years completing his clinical residency in couples and family therapy. Clint hopes to soon open a small private practice in the city.

As a social worker and therapist, Clint spends a large part of every day navigating trauma and crisis with students and clients. His gentle demeanor and listening ears will transfer to his role as a father and role model.

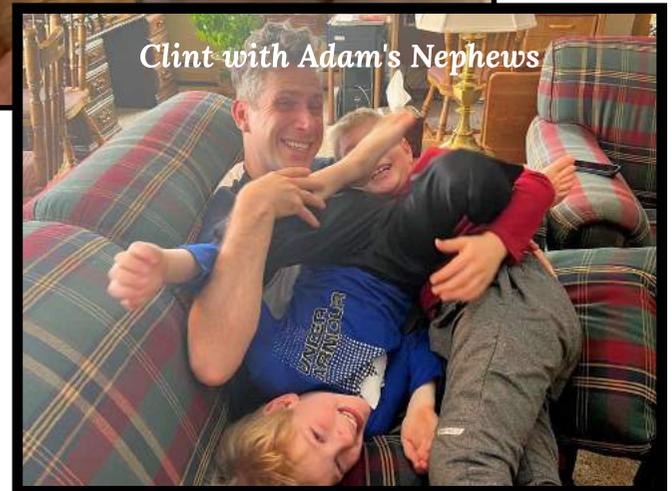

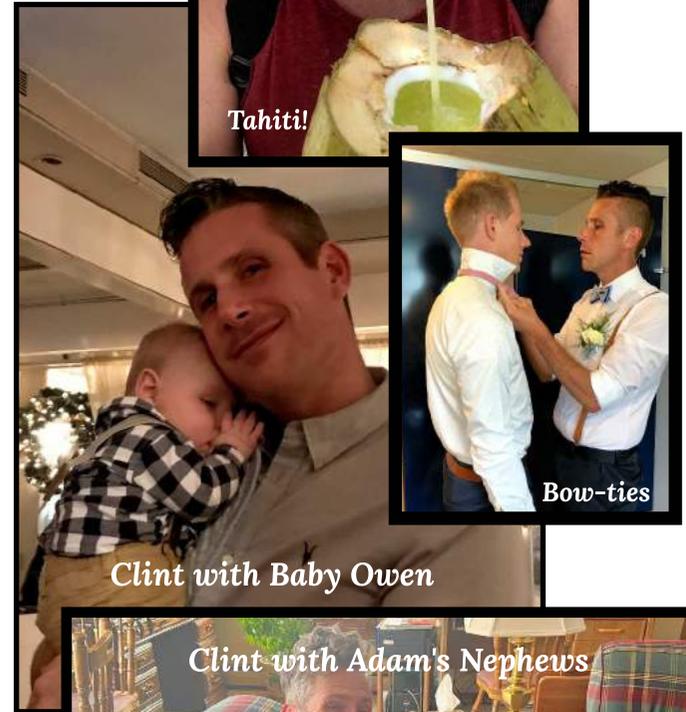

Clint (by Adam)

Clint is my best friend. He has the biggest heart of anyone I know. He is loyal, warm, and endlessly compassionate. He hates being the center of attention, but loves working tirelessly behind the scenes for the people he loves. He chooses his words carefully and makes those around him feel extremely taken care of, safe, and heard.

He taught yoga for many years, loves color-guard, and performed in a modern dance company in Ohio, where he lived before moving to New York. He enjoys running, dancing, and exercise and has recently become a bit of a fanatic for our daily fitness classes.

When Clint plays with our nephews, he is so natural and confident. When we pass children on the streets his eyes get misty because his heart is so full of love, he can't wait to be a dad himself.

His calm, confident, consistent approach will make him an excellent father.

Adam (by Clint)

I fell in love with Adam for all the same reasons he will be a fantastic father. He is kind, generous, warm, supportive, loyal, imaginative, and loves to have fun. He has stood by my side, cheering me on, during some of my hardest moments and I cannot wait to watch him do the same for your child.

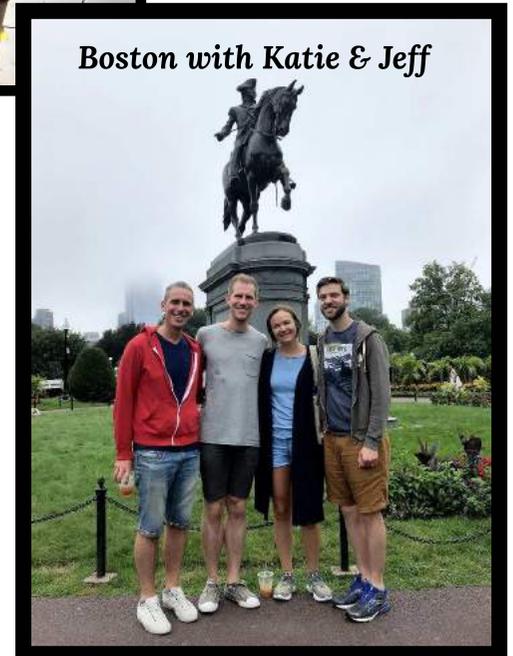

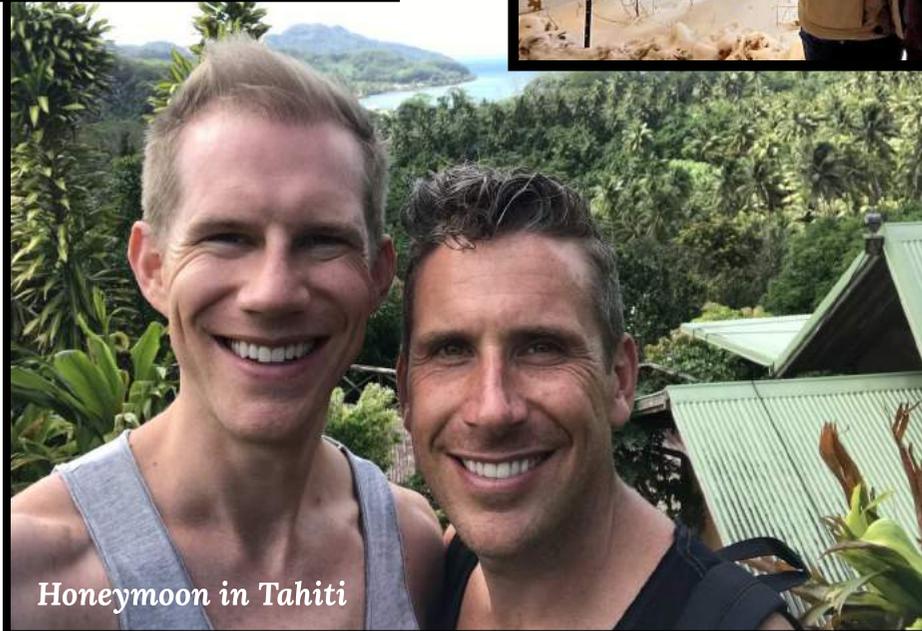

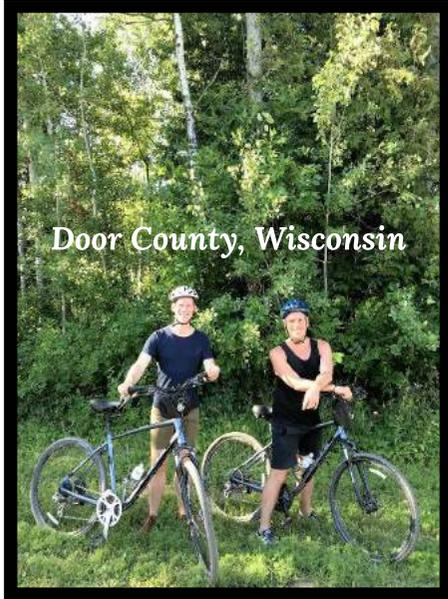

Although he is wildly talented, he does not take himself too seriously. He is incredibly smart yet will put on a silly song and dance through the living room to cheer me up at a moment's notice. He wears his emotions on his sleeve and will comfort and nurture your child through every twist and turn.

Adam is truly one-of-a kind. I could not be more thrilled to watch him become a father. Most importantly, I cannot wait to watch your little one love him as much as I do.

When we aren't working, navigating daily life in the city, or visiting family; we love to

We both carry with us a sense of childlike curiosity as we explore new places and cannot wait to share that sense of adventure with your child. Travel seems so much more exciting as a future trio!

The final piece of our puzzle to share with you is our adorable little 13 year old puggle named Carlos.

His daily activities include sleeping, eating, & snuggling (on repeat).
He is very calm and has a gentle tenderness with babies & children.

Thank you for letting us share our story with you. As parents, we promise to:

Instill compassion, grace, and humility.

Promote imagination & curiosity.

Encourage hard work.

Develop the importance of family and community.

Please know that we are here to support you in any way we can.

Once we adopt, we are fortunate enough to each have paternal leave to spend time bonding with your baby. Once our leave expires, there are some wonderful childcare options to choose from right in our neighborhood.

We are comfortable adopting a child of any race, and are happy to have open communication with you before and after we adopt. We want your child to know the selfless decision you made, and feel the love and care you have for them as they continue to grow.

We are happy to answer any questions, and provide any additional information about ourselves, our home, and our family. We wish you an easy pregnancy and delivery.

Please contact us through our agency Forever Families Through Adoption at 914.939.1180 to set up a time for us to meet or speak more.

Thank you again, Adam & Clint
