

On Sunday, February 10th, FFTA held their Family Fun Day event, the second such fundraiser at the Scarsdale Golf Club bowling alley. In attendance were many FFTA “forever families”, along with staff, members of the board, friends and FFTA supporters. Those who attended/donated came from near and far despite the recent snow storm and had a wonderful afternoon. FFTA was appreciative to have received such generous items donated as raffle prizes including those from local merchants such as Zaltas and Jessica Elliott Designs. The delicious food and desserts were generously donated by Hash-O-Nash in Mamaroneck, California Pizza Kitchen in Scarsdale, Club Sandwich, Rye Ridge Deli, A & S Deli and Sichuan Pavilion in Rye Brook, as well as Hand Rolled Bagels in Rye and Cerbone’s Bakery of Rye Brook. Funds raised continue to support the agency’s passion for finding children their “forever families through adoption”, as well as to help fulfill FFTA’s mission to provide free education, awareness and outreach programming to hospitals, schools, prisons, OBGYN clinics, mental health clinics, and other community based service organizations, as well as to serve prospective adoptive parents, expectant parents, adoptees and adoption professionals in parenting and adoption issues. FFTA is looking ahead at an exciting new year, having achieved successful Hague reaccreditation, expanded intercountry services, and a continued commitment to giving back to the local community, there is much to be excited about. Please keep in touch and continue to visit FFTA’s website, blog and upcoming calendar of events. Remember, FFTA is on Facebook and Twitter!
