Ain't Misbehavin': Discipline and the Adopted Child → → →

In this course you will learn some of the causes for challenging behaviors and understand why discipline is preferable to punishment, especially for adopted children. Get tips and strategies for applying discipline consistently.

Medical Issues in International Adoption

This program is designed to address key adoptive parent questions and is a valuable Hague aligned training requirement. This course will provide an overview of common medical issues faced by children adopted internationally. A section on travel tips, for parent and child, is included as well.

Conspicuous Families: Race, Culture, and Adoption

The term “conspicuous families” refers to families adopting trans-racially and/or trans-culturally. These families face unique parenting challenges that call for awareness of the issues they will encounter.

Let's Talk Adoption: A Lifetime of Family Conversations

This course focuses on a child's understanding of what it means to be adopted and how it changes as she or he grows. It gives families the tools needed to talk about adoption and feel comfortable in doing so.

The Journey of Attachment

The Journey of Attachment is intended to provide adoptive families with an understanding of the attachment process and a set of skills that will help them develop a secure attachment with their child. Domestic children in late infancy and even the youngest children placed internationally are old enough to recognize the loss of their familiar caretaker and environment.

Finding the Missing Pieces: Helping Adopted Children Cope With Grief and Loss

Developed to help parents understand the feelings children have about adoption and the losses they experience, this course gives families strategies and resources they can use to help their children express and deal with their feelings of grief.

With Eyes Wide Open: A Preparation Guide to International Adoption

Children's Home Society & Family Services joins Adoption Learning Partners in offering a web-based version of their highly acclaimed program, With Eyes Wide Open: A Preparation Guide to International Adoption.

Lifebooks: Creating and Telling Your Child's Story (No Course Fee, See Note)

This course introduces parents to the importance of Lifebooks, helps them create one for their child, and provides tips on how to use a Lifebook.

Adopting the Older Child

This course will help adoptive parents determine if adopting an older child is right for them. From knowing what kind of information is important to have to anticipating potential stumbling blocks to a smooth transition, this course serves as a guide to anyone considering adopting a child older than an infant

Creating an Adoption Profile that Works Offers tips on what to include in your profile, includes interactive exercises to help you craft your own story, helps you think about possible connection points to highlight in your profile, and includes profile Do's and Don'ts.
